LAW AND SOCIETY/SOCIOLOGY OF LAW READING LIST (revised 2017)*

Key Classical and Contemporary Theoretical Approaches

Law, Punishment and Collateral Consequences
Christopher Uggen and Jeff Manza, Felon Disfranchisement and American Democracy, Oxford University Press, 2006 (for summary of key points addressed, see http://www.soc.umn.edu/~uggen/FD_summary.htm)
Bruce Western. Punishment and Inequality in America, Russell Sage, 2006.

Obedience to Law: Law, Legitimacy and Deterrence

Law and Inequality

Law and Rights

LaDawn Haglund and Robin Stryker, editors. 2015. Closing the Rights Gap: From Rights to Social Transformation, University of California Press, Introductory and Concluding Chapters, “Making Sense of the Multiple and Complex Pathways through which Human Rights are Realized,” “Emerging Possibilities for Social Transformation.”

Law, Economy and Organizations

Law, Politics and the State

Legal Mobilization and Social Movements

Law and Social Change

Culture and Legal Consciousness

Legal Profession, Professional Socialization and Lawyers’ Careers

Please be aware that although we have divided the reading list into substantive topics, many of these readings legitimately fit under multiple topics. These connections between topics are important.